SURGICAL blunder

Nikki's big new look.

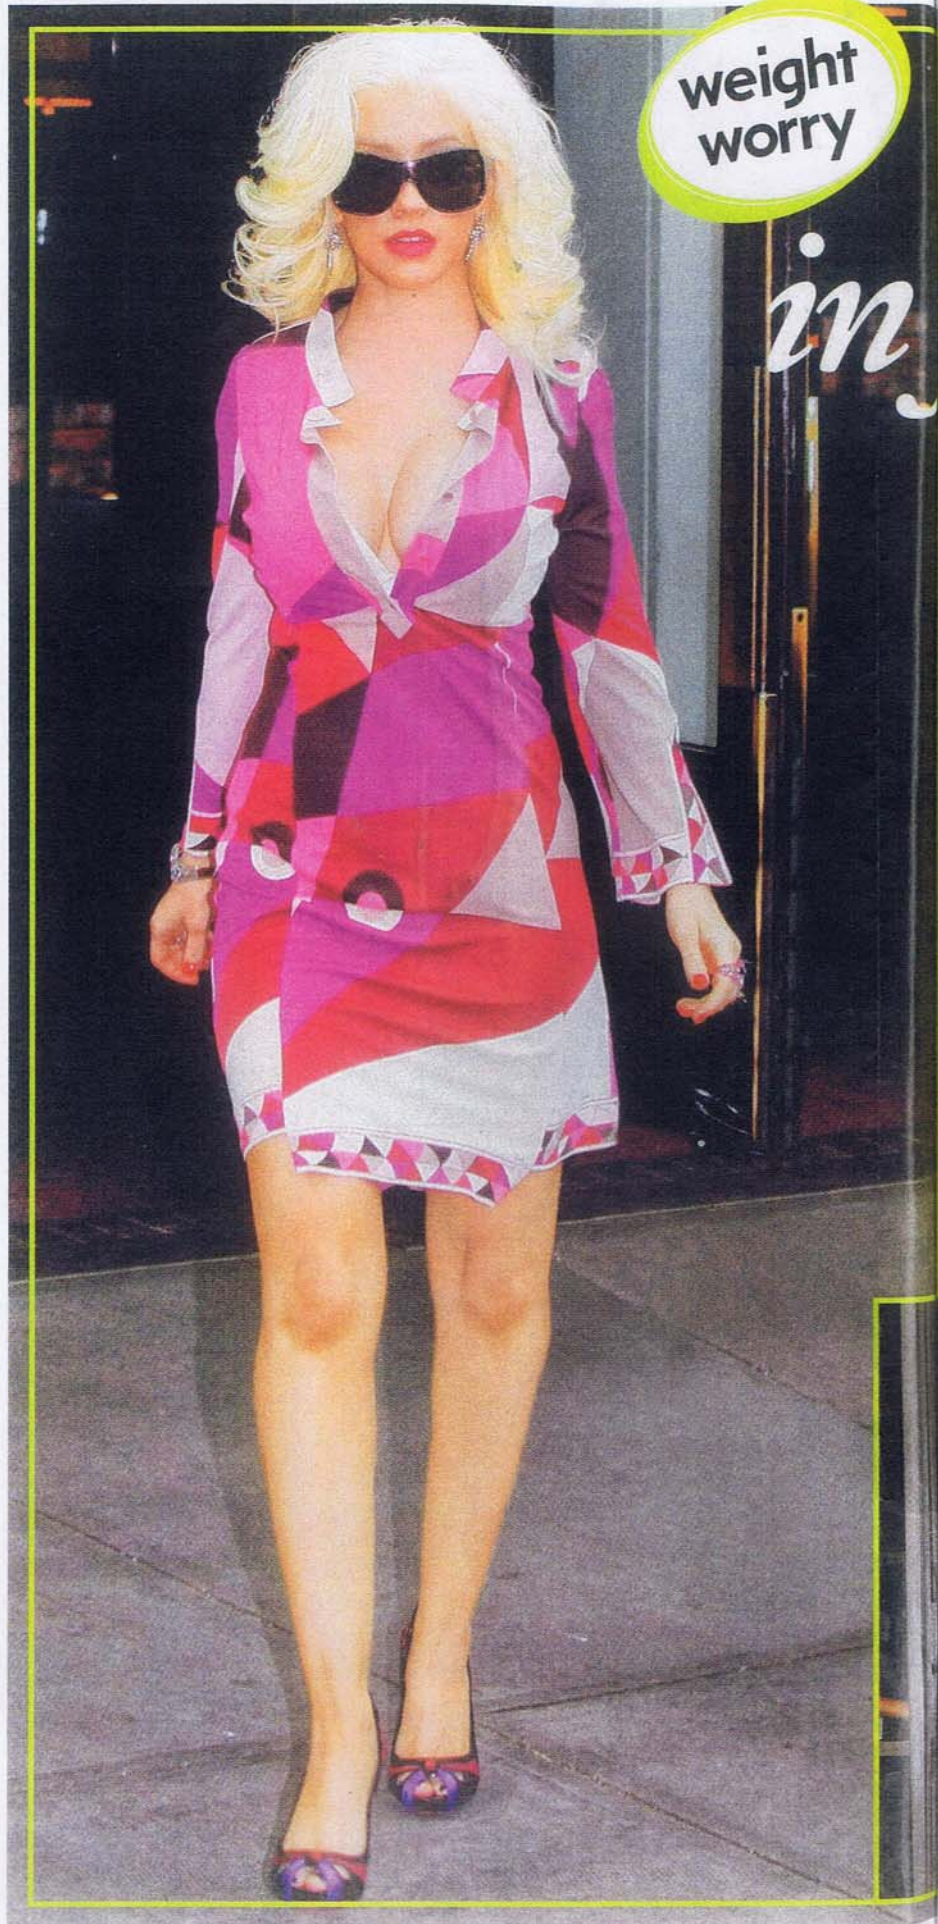

Nikki Cox turned heads for all the wrong reasons at the recent CBS Upfronts event in New York.

The former Las Vegas star drew gasps from fans when she hit the red carpet sporting a vastly oversized trout pout.

Says one spy, "Her face is all puffed up and her lips look like sausages!"

Plastic surgeon Dr Mark Kohout from Sydney's Total Body clinic tells FAMOUS, "It appears Nikki has gone overboard with Restylane, a non-permanent lip filler.

"It is fortunate it's not permanent as this look does not suit her," he says. "It ages her by at least 10 years!" [F]
