Once complaining of saggy skin, Victoria's stomach scar suggests that she's tried to do something about it

TUMMY SCAR

LIPO BOO?
BOO?

VICTORIA BECKHAM

She's complained about her untuned tum before, so it was no surprise when Posh, 33, stepped out last week in a top that revealed what looks to be a scar across her abdomen – apparently from a tummy tuck. "I've got so much saggy skin on my stomach," she has said.

Victoria has admitted she's a fan of plastic surgery. "I don't think there's anything wrong with it," she has said.

A patch of crinkled flesh above her knee has also encouraged talk of a liposuction operation gone wrong.
